OSBORNE & WRIGHT

In company with Jack Prichet, local representative for J. I. Case thresher machines, the News man motored out into the Hollene district Sunday following the precipitation during the last two weeks. As prospects of a bumper wheat crop at this season of the year, the farmers of that locality are enthusiastic.

Prof. Wilson Davis, of Frio, was in Clovis after supplies Saturday. When questioned by a News reporter as to whether or not he had sold his farm as reported, Mr. Davis replied, "It was not a fact, and I want to say here and now, that the News can't run me out of the country on reports, I am here to stay."

Ideals and Enterprise

Ambition is never satisfied with existing conditions; it continually strives for the ideal.

Enterprise cannot be content with the accomplishments of today; it must needs accomplish bigger things on the morrow.

Enterprise is ambition in action. It is the force that carries the ambitious toward the goal of their ideals.

Our Company is a company of ideals.

We have ideals of construction standards, ideals of service efficiency and ideals of our duty to the public.

To the enterprise of our army of five thousand ambitious men and women, with the ideals of their Company ever before them, is due the credit of building, maintaining and operating the comprehensive telephone system which serves the people of the Mountain States.

It is this enterprise that has connected 260,000 telephones together, from which originate over a million exchange messages every day, and more than six and a half million long distance messages every year.
